

Activity: blending & switching roles

Given the four distinct Strategic Performance Consulting roles, answer the following questions.

1. What is the role that best describes your natural Strategic Performance Consulting Style?

Learning Strategist

Business Partner

Project Manager

Professional Specialist

2. For each role, describe how you could incorporate this into your current role or further develop this in my current position to be a more effective Strategic Performance Consultant.

	How can I incorporate this or further develop this in my current role?	How would this increase my effectiveness as a Strategic Performance Consultant?
