

ACTIVITY: FACILITATOR ASSIGNMENTS

Look at the following business interactions. Circle or highlight those which you consider to be appropriate for a facilitator:

A coaching session

A communications/liaison meeting

A conflict amongst two employees

A focus group to gather input on a new program or product

A meeting to negotiate team roles and responsibilities

A meeting to share feedback and improve performance

A meeting where the facilitators opinion is sought

A performance review

A priority-setting meeting

A problem-solving meeting

A program review / evaluation process

A session to clarify objectives and create detailed results indicators

A strategic planning session

A team building session

A training workshop

CHECK YOUR ANSWERS

Check your work from the previous activity. The answers are marked below in bold. These interactions are typical facilitator assignments.

A coaching session

A priority-setting meeting

A team building session

A performance review

A problem-solving meeting

A meeting to share feedback and improve performance

A session to clarify objectives and create detailed results indicators

A conflict amongst two employees

A program review / evaluation process

A communications / liaison meeting

A focus group to gather input on a new program or product

A strategic planning session

A meeting where the facilitator's opinion is sought

A meeting to negotiate team roles and responsibilities